All is going well for an ordinary family living on the country side, the Hunter family decided to go to England on vacation because Mr. Hunters was teaching lesson for university. Their lovable family pets were left with a good family friend John, when John leaves on a 2 week duck hunting trip Luath the Golden Retriever, Bodger the Bull Terrier and Tao the Siamese Cat set out on a huge journey back to their home because they are missing their family. They set on a journey heading west, they go through the most dangerous terrain and face some very difficult challenges.

I recommend this book for younger ages just because it is kind of about talking animals. I think older readers may get a little bit board reading this book but if they enjoy adventure book they would enjoy the book as well.. The book has a slow pace at the beginning but picks up as the book goes on. The vocabulary in the book is pretty easy to understand. If you enjoyed The Incredible Journey one of the read a likes are Big Red which is about a boy and is dog going on a dangerous adventure, and the second read alike is Rascal, a raccoon who is brought home by a young boy an soon the boy and his new best friend do everything together but when spring time comes everything changes.
